

Association of Oil Pipe Lines,
American Petroleum Institute and Hunton & Williams present

the Second Annual
Pipeline Legal Issues & Policy Conference

August 5-6, 2004

Marriott Waterfront Hotel ♦ Baltimore, Maryland

Featured Speaker:

Assistant Attorney General Thomas L. Sansonetti

In-depth discussions and roundtables on major legal issues confronting the pipeline industry will include:

- Changing Regulatory Landscape
- Updates and Discussion on Homeland Security Issues
- Enforcement Policies, Issues and Goals

Executives, legal counsel, and government affairs members of the Association of Oil Pipe Lines and American Petroleum Institute are invited to participate in the Second Annual Pipeline Legal Issues and Policy Conference. This year's conference will present the same opportunity for informal dialogue among industry members, government representatives and experienced practitioners on evolving legal and policy issues affecting oil pipelines. There will be a series of small panels that present updates on issues of interest, and encourage audience involvement and discussion.
